

Camp Teacher Option: Matt Herring

Matt loves to exhort young people in the scriptures. He is passionate about communicating with clarity and challenging young people to give their lives to Jesus and follow him. Matt lives in nearby Huntsville with his wife Holly and two boys, Grady and Levi. Currently, he serves as the Director for Student Discipleship at Summit Crossing Community Church, and previously spent 7 years as the Campus Director for FCA in the North Alabama area. Matt loves camp, and values students disconnecting from their technology driven world to consider Jesus. If you need a camp teacher for your retreat or camp, we think Matt would be a great option for you. If interested, you can E-mail Matt at mherring@summitcrossing.org for any inquiries on booking him as your camp teacher.
